On December 15, 2025, the Board of Directors of Syra Health Corp. (the “Company”) appointed Gregory R. Alexander as Chief Executive Officer of the Company and entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Alexander, effective January 5, 2026 (the “Alexander Employment Agreement”).

Under the terms of the Alexander Employment Agreement, Mr. Alexander is entitled to receive an annual base salary of $251,000 and an annual performance bonus with a target amount equal to 30% of his annual base salary based upon the Board’s assessment of Mr. Alexander’s and the Company’s attainment of goals as set by the Board in its sole discretion. In accordance with the Alexander Employment Agreement, Mr. Alexander will also be granted 110,537 restricted stock units, 20% of which vest one year after date of grant and the remainder which vest equally over 4 years beginning one year after date of grant. Additionally, he will be granted stock options to purchase 257,920 shares of Class B common stock with 20% vesting on December 31, 2026 and the remainder vesting equally on an annual basis through December 31, 2030 as well as 368,458 performance stock units, subject to achievement of performance targets to be determined. In addition, the Alexander Employment Agreement contains non-competition and non-solicitation provisions.

Pursuant to the terms of the Alexander Employment Agreement, if Dr. Alexander’s employment is terminated by the Company for cause or as a result of Mr. Alexander’s death or permanent disability, or if Mr. Alexander terminates his employment agreement voluntarily, Mr. Alexander will be entitled to receive a lump sum equal to (i) any portion of unpaid base compensation then due for periods prior to termination, (ii) any bonus earned but not yet paid through the date of his termination, and (iii) all business expenses reasonably and necessarily incurred by Mr. Alexander prior to the date of termination. Mr. Alexander would not be entitled to such severance payment if he terminates for good reason within the first 12 months of employment.

In addition, if Mr. Alexander’s employment is terminated: (a) by the Company without cause within 12 months prior to a change of control (as defined in the Alexander Employment Agreement) that was pending during such 12 month period, (b) by Mr. Alexander for good reason within 12 months after a change of control, or (c) by the Company without cause at any time upon or within 12 months after a change of control, Mr. Alexander will be entitled to receive the amounts due upon termination of his employment by the Company for cause or as a result of his death or permanent disability, or upon termination by Mr. Alexander of his employment voluntarily, in addition to the severance payments due if Mr. Alexander’s employment is terminated by the Company without cause or by Mr. Alexander for good reason, all of Mr. Alexander’s unvested stock options and other equity awards would immediately vest and become fully exercisable (x) in the event a change of control transaction is pending, for a period of six months following the date of termination, and (y) in the event a change of control transaction is not then pending, for the period of time set forth in the applicable agreement evidencing the award.

There are no arrangements or understandings between Mr. Alexander and any other person pursuant to which he was selected as an officer of the Company, and there is no family relationship between Mr. Alexander and any of the Company's other directors or executive officers.
